Doggone Productions is Closing!

Due to a change in career direction I have made the difficult decision to close down the operations of Doggone Productions, after 10 years, as I will not be able to continue to provide a fulltime service to our customers.

The final date of operations will be October 31st 2008. I will no longer be taking on any projects whatsoever from now on until the closing date. Any outstanding projects, however, will be honoured and completed.

All clients that wish to receive copies of their existing artwork on CDROM may make such a request in writing along with a payment of $10.00 to cover costs.

If your business has a website that is currently maintained by Doggone Productions please contact me personally to discuss your options.

I wish to thank all my clients for their support and encouragement over the last 10 years. It has been a great pleasure providing my services to you all.

If you have any questions whatsoever please do not hesitate to contact me on the telephone or email address above.

Yours sincerely,

Tom Heeren
Creative Director
